AFTERSCHOOL EQUIPS STUDENTS FOR SUCCESS

Teachers say students in afterschool programs show more interest in class, behave better and are more likely to complete their homework assignments. Research shows that students participating in high-quality afterschool programs:

- ◆ earn higher grades and do better on standardized tests.
- ◆ attend school more often.
- ◆ have opportunities for physical activity and healthy snacks.
- ◆ are less likely to abuse drugs or alcohol.
- ◆ are more likely to advance to the next grade and graduate from high school.
